GOD INSPIRES OUR LOVE AND WORSHIP

Dr. Edwards Preaches Last of Sermons on "What Men Live By."

Rev. Dr. Loren M. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist Memorial church, preached a sermon on "Worship" Sunday evening. This was the last of a series on "What Men Live By." The previous texts being on Work, Play and Love. During his interesting discourse the reverend preacher said there were plenty of people in the world who would be willing to declare that worship is not essential to a full and wholesome life; many who consider it a mark of mental superiority if they refuse to bow in worship to any being or anything, unless it be their successful achievements. And yet at its widest range, bald materialism cannot transcend the infinite, and it is difficult to escape the fact which investigation reveals that the race is inherently religious. Men will worship somebody or something and our concern is for that attitude of heart which lifts worship to the highest levels.

"Surely a God who loves the beautiful and who is so lavish with his beauty gifts inspires our love and worship. It is interesting to note that about all primitive people have worshiped nature, or have worshiped God through nature, and the appeal is still strong in that direction. Moreover, in one's self there are the incentives to worship especially from such experiences as touch the fountain head of life. For example sorrow very often leads us to God. No one need try to find in every sorrow or failure some blessing in disguise. Sometimes such blows contract and harden, and even crush a life. Just as beauty and even love, may spoil a child by soothing it into a lackadaisical and flabby acquiescence, so sorrow, failure, disappointment may depress and discourage to the point of despair. Whatever trouble we have or may have, revealing our own weakness and insufficiency, should lead us to rest in Him whose strength is sufficient, whose arms are able to hold us in any disaster and whose love warms our hearts into worship. "The soul was created by God, it was intended that it should be in tune with the infinite and there is no final peace except in Him. Yonder in ancient Bethlehem the child Jesus lay cradled in a manger, and yonder in ancient Media and Parthia wise men looked and longed and prayed. And when, guided by the star they made their way to the inn and its adjoining stable they performed the most symbolic act in human experience, the act of worship. We, too, have seen this guiding star arising out of the earth-born experience of life, out of our wonder and ecstasy, out of our joys and disasters, out of our loves and devotions, and standing over our Bethlehem, we too, bow and worship."

RAGLAND TOURNAMENT NOW IN FULL SWING

A. Zimmerman Wins Family Championship—Leagues Start on Jan. 3.

The Ragland bowling tournament, a new and unique feature of the attractions at the Ellsasser bowling alleys of this city, is now in full swing. Practically all of the bowlers of the many leagues rolling at these alleys have entered and are making efforts to make record scores. The tournament opened last Monday evening and will close on next Saturday evening. This is the annual feature at the alleys during the two weeks at the holiday time and when the other leagues have closed their fall schedules and before opening the spring.

Prizes will be awarded for the highest scores. The high scores in the doubles to date are as follows:

C. Hill	171	193	199	628
H. Pelton	172	191	192	611
Total	1399

Scratch:

Total	171	155	158	484
Shower	245	189	210	644
Total	1128

Preparations for the opening of the spring schedules for the various leagues are now under way and practically all of the teams are now fully organized for the balance of the season. The first of the schedules will be begun on next Monday evening and the other leagues will start on various other nights of the first week of the new year. Bowling this year is more active than ever before and since the complete organization of the City Bowling association the interest in the game has become greater.

Already there is considerable discussion of the annual A. B. C. tournament, which will be held at Toledo, O., this year, and it is expected that Mishawaka will have several teams to represent her at the national tournament.

An interesting match between two well-known local bowlers, "Bob" and "Art" Zimmerman, brothers, was held Christmas day at the alleys in a series of singles. For the past several years the two brothers, who are more than ordinary bowlers, have rolled off for the family championship, and this year the honors went to "Art," the younger. Their scores were:

Art	173	245	167	585
Bob	173	176	190	539

Another series of singles between "Dutch" Bauerlein and "Fleck" Rohleder, two well-known knights of the drive, were rolled Sunday afternoon. "Fleck" took the series by a margin of three pins, setting a three-game total of 556, against Bauerlein's 553.

NEW CLUB HOUSE FOR CITY IS ASSURED

Incorporation Papers Applied For—Will be Ready For Spring.

The Riverside club, which is to take the place of the old Country club, is an assured fact. Incorporation papers are being applied for at Indianapolis in the names of Ralph Feig, Ralph Jernegan and Charles Bingham. This means that the option on the place of the old Country club, owned by the property from John Chase Ellsworth and F. C. Huff, the owners, South Bend, and which amounts to $20,000, will be taken up. C. A. Ostrom, who is chairman of the general committee of 13, appointed for the purpose of arranging financial details and drawing up a set of by-laws, has been confident from the start of the enterprise that no trouble would be experienced in carrying out the financial part of the arrangements. The property comprises 65 acres and an excellent club building toward the refurbishing of which $500 has been donated by an enthusiastic Mishawakan.

The property is situated along the banks of the St. Joseph river, about a mile from the center of the city, and can be conveniently reached by the streetcar. The club house overlooks the entire 65 acres of beautiful undulating land, and is ideally situated in every respect. All kinds of healthy outdoor sports, such as golf, tennis, bowling on the green, croquet, etc., will be inaugurated. It is expected to have everything in readiness by the arrival of spring.

Following is the committee acting with Mr. Ostrom:

M. W. Mix, president of the Dodge Manufacturing Co.; W. H. Tupper of the board of public works; E. J. W. Fink, sales manager of the Woolen Co.; Fred N. Smith, cashier of the First National bank; D. ST. PAUL'S CHURCH GETS $1,000 ANONYMOUSLY

St. Paul's Episcopal church was again the recipient of a generous Christmas gift of $1,000, sent by an anonymous donor who for many years has forwarded a like sum at Christmastide to the vestry of the church. The amount will be applied toward the building fund. Each of the choir boys received a sum of money from a member of the congregation while the acolyte was presented with vestments from still another member of the church.

RECOMMENDS CLOSING OF ALLEYS IN PLAT

A recommendation to vacate all alleys contained in the original old St. Joe Iron Works plat, which are not now in use was made by City Engineer Charles Cole at the Monday morning session of the board of public works.

For several years there has been an impression among people living in the territory of the plat that these alleys which are not now in use have been formally vacated while no record of any action of this kind can be found. And for this reason the recommendation has been made. The board instructed the city engineer to prepare specific drawings showing the alleys not now in use after which it is probable that the board will take action.

The board of Contractor A. M. Smith, on the Wenger ave., sewer improvement was presented to the board and approved.

THE SALVATION ARMY CHEERED MANY HOMES

Ensign O. H. Hart in charge of the local branch of the Salvation army, begs to thank all those who contributed to the army's Christmas fund. The ensign and members of the army, left nothing undone to bring cheer into the homes of those who otherwise would have been without a ray of the happiness of Yuletide. The general subscriptions received by the army for its Christmas work fell far behind the contributions of past years, but the $100 donated by a kind hearted citizen, and sent to The News-Times for the ensign, enabled Mr. Hart to attend to every case of destitution in the city and reported to the army.
